Thanks for letting me know.

I do not expect you to work on this over your holiday break. Please tell Chris you will be on leave and unable to assist again until January 3rd and cc me.

Thanks,

Darryl

In anticipation of potentially a fifth round of comments from OMB, I wanted to see what your availability is the next couple weeks to help draft responses. January 20th is right around the corner, and we are really coming down to the wire. I can't imagine we'll have more than a couple days to turn around responses if we want to have any chance of proposing by Inauguration day. I will be around this week and next, and will be in D.C. the week of Jan 9th.

Please let me know what days you all are planning on taking off.

Thanks!

-Chris
